രണ്ടവസരം നടപ്പിലിരിക്കുന്ന പബ്ലിക അനേന്ത്യക്കൊല്ലം ഉടനേയും ഏപ്രിൽ 1-ാം തീയതിയും ഒക്ടോബർ 1-ാം തീയതിയും കൊടുക്കുന്നതാകുന്നു.

നൂറിനു മുന്നാം മുന്നായും പബ്ലിശയുള്ള ഉറപ്പിക്കടങ്ങളുടെ കാര്യത്തിൽ ഗവർമ്മെണ്ടിനുള്ള അവകാശത്തെ അപേക്ഷകന്മാർ അഭിനന്ദിക്കുന്നതാകുന്നു.

അപേക്ഷകം നൂറു ഉറപ്പികയ്ക്കോ അതിലധികമോ ഉറപ്പികയിൽ കവിയാതെയുള്ള ആ സംഖ്യയുടെ പൊതക്കണക്കോ ആയിരിക്കേണ്ടതും സേവിങ്സ് ബാങ്ക് പ്രവൃത്തി ചെയ്യുന്ന വല്ല തപ്പാലാപ്പീസ്സിലും 1916 ആഗ. 14-ാം തീയതിമുതൽ 1916 സെപ്തെമ്പർ 25-ാം തീയതിയോടെ (രണ്ടു തീയതികളും ഉൾപ്പടെ) അവയെ സ്വീകരിക്കുന്നതുമാകുന്നു. വല്ല ആളും ഒരു സേവിങ്സ് ബാങ്കിൽ പണം ഇട്ടിരിക്കുന്ന അതേ തപ്പാലാപ്പീസിലും അപേക്ഷ ചെയ്യാവുന്നതാകുന്നു.

എന്നു സംബന്ധപ്പെട്ട ആപേക്ഷിച്ചിരിക്കുന്നവൊ അവയെ ഉഴവാനം ആപേക്ഷകം ഒന്നുകൂടെ കെട്ടിപ്പേക്കുന്നതിനും ആതിനു ഇച്ഛവിലയുള്ള പക്ഷം ആപേക്ഷകനുവാൻ കൊടുക്കുന്നതുമാകുന്നു. പുനം കെട്ടിപ്പെടുക്കുന്നതു കൊണ്ടു സംഭവിയാമൊ, അല്ലെങ്കിൽ തന്നെ ഉഴവാൻവേണ്ടി എതാനുമൊ സേവിങ്ങ്സ് ബാങ്ക് ക്രണക്കിൽ അപ്പോഴുള്ള സംഖ്യയിൽനിന്നു എടുപ്പാനായിട്ടു അധികാരപ്പെടുത്തിട്ടൊ ആവാം.

തുല്യപ്പോലീസ് ഉപാന്തരം വാങ്ങിട്ടുള്ളതും തുല്യപ്പോലീസ് അധികാരസ്ഥന്മാരുടെ ബന്ധവസ്സിൽ വെച്ചിട്ടുള്ളതും ആയ പുതിയ കടത്തിനുള്ള പണ്ടപ്രകാരമുള്ള പലിശയിന്മേൽ ആയ നികുതി വസൂലാക്കുന്നതല്ല.

ആപേക്ഷകനാൽ കൈമാറം ചെയ്യാവുന്നതായ അവകാശം സിദ്ധിക്കുന്നതും ആ അവകാശം സിദ്ധിച്ചിട്ടുള്ളവർക്കു ഉണ്ടാകുന്ന പലിശയുള്ള ഇണ്ണാ ഗഡുക്കളായുള്ള ഉറപ്പിച്ച ഉറപ്പുപത്രങ്ങൾ അവയിൽ പറഞ്ഞ സംഖ്യയുടെ നൂറിന്നു തൊണ്ണൂറാറു ഉറപ്പിച്ചപ്രകാരം ഉള്ള പലിശയുള്ള ഉറപ്പിച്ച ഉറപ്പുപത്രങ്ങൾ അവയിൽ പറഞ്ഞ സംഖ്യയുടെ നൂറിന്നു എഴുപത്തിഞ്ചരയ ഉറപ്പിച്ചപ്രകാരമൊ പുതിയ കടത്തിൽ അവർ എടുത്തിട്ടുള്ളതിനു തുല്യമായ തത്സംഖ്യവരെ പുതിയ കടമായി മാറുവാൻ അപേക്ഷയുണ്ടായിരിക്കുന്നതാകുന്നു.

മാറുവാനുള്ള അവകാശം സിദ്ധിച്ചിട്ടുള്ളവർ മാറുന്നതിനു ചെയ്യുന്ന അപേക്ഷകം 1916 ഒക്ടോബർ 16-നു മുമ്പു 1917 ജനവരി 16-നു പിമ്പു (രണ്ടും ഉൾപ്പടെ) സമർപ്പിക്കുന്നതാകുന്നു. മാറാം ചെയ്യപ്പെട്ട ഉറപ്പുപത്രങ്ങളിന്മേലുള്ള പലിശ 1916 സപ്തമ്പർ 30-നു മുമ്പെ മാറുന്ന സമയത്തു രൊക്കമായി കൊടുക്കുന്നതും പകരമായി കൊടുക്കുന്ന പുതിയ കടത്തിനുള്ള പലിശ 1916 ഒക്ടോബർ 1-നു മുതൽ കൂട്ടുന്നതും ആകുന്നു.

മാറുവാനുള്ള അവകാശങ്ങളെ, ഉപയോഗപ്പെടുത്തുവാൻ ആഗ്രഹമില്ലാത്ത അപേക്ഷകനുവാൻ അവയെ തുല്യപ്പോലീസ്സ് ഉപാന്തരം അപ്പപ്പോഴത്തെ അങ്ങാടിനിലപ്രകാരം വിൽപ്പാനുള്ളതാകുന്നു.

ഉഴവാൻ വിവരങ്ങൾ അടങ്ങീട്ടുള്ള അറിയിപ്പിന്മേൽ പ്രകാരം അപേക്ഷ മാതിരി കൂടെ സേവിങ്ങ്സ്ബാങ്ക് പ്രവൃത്തി ചെയ്യുന്ന എല്ലാ തുല്യപ്പോലീസ്സുഉദ്യോഗസ്ഥന്മാരിലും കിട്ടുന്നതാകുന്നു.

ഇതിലേക്കു ചേർന്നിട്ടുള്ള അപേക്ഷാ മാതിരി ഉപയോഗിക്കാൻ മനസ്സുള്ളപക്ഷം അങ്ങിനെ ചെയ്യിക്കുന്നതാകുന്നു.

1916 - 17 ലെ ഇന്ത്യാ ഗവണ്മെന്റിലേക്ക് നാലു പലിശയായി മാറാവുന്ന കടത്തിനു തപ്പാലാപ്പീസ്സുകൾ മുഖേനയും ചെയ്യാവുന്ന അപേക്ഷയുടെ മാതിരി.

No. 626.

CHINA SEA—TIENTSIN DISTRICT—HARBOR.

Special Navigation Rules to become operative on the 1st September 1916.

Notice is hereby given that on and after the 1st September 1916, the Special Navigation Rules appended hereto will be operative on the Harbor from the Deep Hole to Tientsin.

The Special Navigation Rules will be enforceable on vessels of all nationalities by virtue of their incorporation in a new issue of Tientsin Harbour Regulations which will be dated the 1st September 1916.

(By order of the Inspector-General of Customs)

The Maritime Customs Coast Inspector's Office,
Shanghai, 1st August 1916.

W. FENN TYLER,
Coast Inspector.

APPENDIX.

SPECIAL NAVIGATION RULES OPERATIVE FROM DEEP HOLE TO TIENTSIN.

(To come into operation on 1st September 1916.)

Article 1.—The following rules or special rules as provided for in article 30 of the International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea, which Regulations are also operative except in so far as they are modified by these Special Navigation Rules. In these Special Navigation Rules the word "vessel" refers to sea-going power vessels and to tugs only.

Article 2.—When two vessels are meeting, other than as provided for in article 3, each shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the channel which lies on the starboard side of such vessel.

Note.—In the case of a light-draught and a deep-draught vessel meeting, mutual safety may in some circumstances be best secured by such vessel keeping to her port side of the channel. Such action in such circumstances is intended to come under the operation of the exception provided for by the qualification "when it is safe and practicable."

Article 3.—A vessel proceeding against the current when meeting a vessel proceeding with the current shall provide for the passing of the other vessel in a locality where such passing is safe, slowing down and acting in accordance with article 2, or stopping and tying up to, or stopping and lying up against, either bank, as may be necessary to that end.

When it is safe for the other vessel to pass she shall sound three long blasts.

Note.—The term "tying up" means that the vessel is made fast to the shore. The term "stopping and lying up against the bank" means that the vessel is as close to the bank as possible and that she is not materially moving over the ground.

Article 4.—A vessel proceeding with the current when meeting a vessel proceeding against the current shall proceed at the lowest speed consistent with her being kept under command and, particularly, shall endeavour to keep bank until the other vessel indicates that it is safe to pass by giving three long blasts.

Article 5.—When two vessels are meeting the sound signal as provided for in article 3, indicating the side of the channel they intend to follow, is invariably to be made.

A vessel stopping and lying up against the bank shall also make this signal.

Article 6.—As regards a vessel overtaking another vessel:—

(a) The overtaking vessel shall sound one long blast, meaning "May I pass?"

(b) The overtaking vessel shall, when it is safe for the other vessel to pass and when it is deemed to acquiesce in such passing, signify that acquiescence by sounding three long blasts and shall indicate which side of the channel she intends to follow by means of the sound signal (a) or (b), article 8.

(c) The overtaken vessel, having given the acquiescence signal, shall slow down to the lowest speed consistent with her being kept under command, and the overtaking vessel shall proceed at no greater speed than is needed to effect the passing with safety.

Article 7.—A vessel proceeding with the current shall, by day, carry at the fore-truck one black ball and at night shall exhibit a green light not less than 6 feet above the mast-head light.

Article 8.—The following sound signals are to be used when the meaning attached to them is required to be conveyed:—

(a) One short blast means "I am keeping to that side of the channel which lies on my starboard hand."

(b) Two short blasts mean "I am keeping to that side of the channel which lies on my port hand."

(c) Three short blasts mean "My engines are going full speed astern."

(d) Five or more short blasts mean "Keep back, danger, you cannot pass."

(e) One long blast means, when made by a vessel having the right of way, "I am proceeding," and when made by an overtaking vessel, "May I pass?"

(f) Three long blasts mean "Come on, you can pass."

ACTS ASSENTED TO BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

The PRESIDENT:—"I have to announce to the Council that the following Acts received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the dates specified against each:—

(i) The Madras Irrigation Cess (Amendment) Act, 1916—23rd May 1916.
(ii) The Madras Civil Courts (Amendment) Act, 1916—24th June 1916.
(iii) The Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1916—30th June 1916".

COMMUNICATIONS TO THE COUNCIL.

The Secretary reported the receipt of a letter from the Chairman, Madras Trades Association, dated 24th July 1916, on the subject of the Bill to amend the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882 and the Madras City Civil Court Act, 1892.

THE BILL TO AMEND THE PRESIDENCY SMALL CAUSE COURTS ACT, 1882, AND THE MADRAS CITY CIVIL COURT ACT, 1892.

The Hon'ble Sir HAROLD STUART:—Your Excellency, I beg to introduce into the Council a Bill to amend the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, and the Madras City Civil Court Act, 1892, and to move that the Bill be read in Council. Under the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, the Court of Small Causes in this city has jurisdiction, speaking generally, in suits the subject-matter of which does not exceed Rs. 2,000 in value. By section 19 a large class of suits is excluded from the jurisdiction of the Court of Small Causes, but in so far as suits of the kind over which the Court of Small Causes has jurisdiction are concerned, the pecuniary limit is Rs. 2,000.

Under section 21, however, suits by and against officers of the court and all suits the amount or value of the subject-matter of which exceeds Rs. 1,000 may be instituted in the High Court; and under section 39 the defendant to a suit the subject-matter of which exceeds Rs. 1,000 may move the High Court to transfer that suit from the Court of Small Causes to its own file. That Act, your Excellency, was passed in 1882 at which time the only court of ordinary original jurisdiction in the city of Madras was the High Court; but in 1892 there was passed an Act which set up in the city of Madras what is known as the Madras City Civil Court which has jurisdiction in suits of all kinds, with a few and unimportant exceptions, up to a pecuniary limit of Rs. 2,500. When that Act was passed, I have no doubt that a curious anomaly was overlooked, for, the position at present is this: that the plaintiff in a suit of a small cause nature the value of which is between Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 2,000 can take it to the High Court, but if the value is between Rs. 2,000 and Rs. 2,500, he must take it to the City Civil Court. The Judges of the High Court have pointed out to us this anomaly, and the object of the Bill which I have introduced is to redress it. I feel that the anomaly is one which ought to be removed, and I hope the Council will agree to the passing of this Bill. I should regard it as a Bill of a formal nature except for the fact that we have had a protest from the Madras Trades Association who point out that they have now the privilege in this limited number of suits to go up to the High Court, and that they are hereafter to be sent to a lower forum. The section is of an anomalous character, and I think that on reflection the Association will probably decide that their request is one which should not be pressed. Possibly we may hear something on this matter from the representative of the Association in this Council. I will not pursue it further at present. I will only move, Your Excellency, that the Bill be read in Council.

The Hon'ble Sir P. S. SIVASWAMI AYYAR seconded the motion.

The Hon'ble Mr. J. O. ROBINSON:—"Your Excellency, with your Excellency's permission I desire to oppose the motion for introducing the Bill to amend the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, and the Madras City Civil Court Act, 1892. I must confess that I have no particular prejudice on the subject myself, but as a matter of principle I must oppose the motion, and I do so for the following reasons: I understand that the sole reason put forward for the Bill is that it is anomalous that suits between Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 2,000 in value, which are of the nature of small causes should in certain cases be tried by the High Court, while the City Civil Court has jurisdiction up to Rs. 2,500. My Lord, the fact that it is anomalous is not a sufficient reason for the removal of the privilege which I understand has been highly appreciated not only by the legal profession, but also by suitors who are compelled to appeal to the High Court. I have myself always felt it as an anomaly, but I think I have never ventured to say so till the present time, that the stream of justice as represented by the High Court Judges should cease to flow during the long vacation; but for that reason I do not think we should vote for the abolition of the holidays which the Judges undoubtedly earn.

There are other reasons put to me which have been urged from the highest quarters to prove that the Act, as it is, is sufficient for all purposes and should not be altered. The reasons are as follows: At present when there are questions of law or of construction of documents in suits for over Rs. 1,000 it is natural for suitors to wish to keep the right to go to the High Court for the decision of such cases and not to the City Civil Court which is subordinate to the High Court. Further than that, the institution fee in the High Court is less when the amount sued for is more than Rs. 1,000. For example, if a suit is filed in the City Civil Court for Rs. 2,000, the institution fee would be about Rs. 130, but in the High Court it is only Rs. 50. For Rs. 3,000 the institution fee in the City Civil Court is Rs. 175. The City Civil Court is not a superior court to the Small Cause Court, because there is an appeal from the City Civil Court to the High Court. The administration of justice in the High Court in uncontested cases is usually more prompt than in the other courts, and a decree can be obtained very much quicker in the High Court than in other courts, I must also, say, my Lord, that in Bombay and Calcutta the remedy now sought here is not available because there is no City Civil Court there.

3RD AUGUST 1916.] (Mr. Robinson, Mr. Ramanuja Acharyar, Mr. Ramachandra Rao.)

"The City Civil Court has more than enough to do, as its jurisdiction has been raised from Rs. 2,500 to Rs 3,000 and there is no reason why its work should be added to by the Judges of the High Court failing to discharge their duty of deciding cases.

"I am told the legal profession has not been consulted in the matter. I hope that the attorneys and vakils will have an opportunity of expressing their opinions before the Council passes this Bill."

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur V. K. RAMANUJA ACHARIYAR:—"I wish to oppose the motion. I consider the Bill to be unnecessary. I do not see the anomaly. There are two courts which are entirely different. One deals with cases relating to immovable property; the other deals with cases relating to promissory notes and other small cause suits. Apparently the object of the motion is to give some relief to the High Court. There are certain cases filed in the Small Cause Court which may be transferred to the High Court and it is probably proposed to give relief to the High Court. But it is forgotten that the City Civil Court is already overworked. The Government recently gave temporary relief by transferring a Judge from the Small Cause Court to the City Civil Court. If the Bill is accepted and passed, the work of the City Civil Court will be increased and it will be necessary to add one more Judge to that court and the cost to the State will be increased. On the other hand, the Small Cause Court is not overworked. I understand that the work is not sufficient to occupy all the Judges for five hours every day, and when one of the Small Cause Court Judges was drafted to the City Civil Court, the vacancy was not filled up. That proves that the Small Cause Court can get along with a less number of Judges. So far as the expenditure to the State is concerned, it is a move in the wrong direction.

"As regards the litigants, I do not think there is any benefit. So far as the status of the Judge is concerned, I understand all cases between Rs 1,000 and Rs. 2,000 are now tried by the Chief Judge. I think it is not sanctioned by any rule of law, but it is the practice. So far as judicial qualifications go, the Chief Judge cannot be of a lower status than the Judge of the City Civil Court. The only advantage of transferring these cases to the City Civil Court is that the procedure in taking evidence will be altered. Whereas now in the Small Cause Court it is open to the Judge to take down the evidence or not, if these cases are transferred to the City Civil Court, the evidence will be recorded, the judgment will give reasons and appeals will be allowed. But this can be done by amending the Small Cause Courts Act so as to compel the Judge to record the evidence in cases between Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 2,000 if the parties demand that the evidence should be recorded.

"There is one fact which has been forgotten, that by transferring these cases to the City Civil Court, the appellate work of the High Court will be increased as they will be taking up appeals from cases transferred to the City Civil Court. Because it will impose an additional burden on the State and secondly, because, what is sought to be done may be done by amending the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, I oppose the motion."

The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur M. RAMACHANDRA RAO:—"Your Excellency, I was under the impression that this motion would be passed without any debate, but I see there is a certain amount of difference of opinion as regards the principle of the Bill. I support the main principle of the Bill. In suits which are transferred under the provisions of this Bill to the City Civil Court, the litigant is allowed an appeal which otherwise he would not have if they remained on the file of the Small Cause Court. That is a right to the litigant. I am rather surprised to be told by the Hon'ble Mr. Ramanuja Acharyar that the litigants would not welcome any provision of law which will give them a right of appeal. For the reason that a right of appeal is provided I would support the principle of the Bill. When the next motion is made, I shall have a good deal to say. The Hon'ble Mr Robinson has remarked that the legal profession has not expressed its opinion. There may be many suggestions to improve the drafting of the measure in detail. There are several other sections of the Small Cause Courts Act which will have to be considered in detail when the consideration of the next motion comes up. For these reasons I support the principle of the Bill."

The Hon'ble Mr. T. RANGA ACHARIYAR:—"I did not intend to take part in the debate, but seeing that opposition has been raised to the simple proposal to enhance the value of the City Civil Court, which I appreciate, I desire to say a few words. I am not practising in that court or on the Original Side of the High Court and I can speak as a disinterested person. I know that the City Civil Court is very popular in the city and to do anything to add to its jurisdiction or to enhance its importance will be welcomed with a large heart.

"My Lord, I may also point out that the objections taken to the principle of the Bill have not any substance. As for the matter of procedure to which my honourable friend Mr. Ramanuja Achariyar referred, I think it is more to the advantage of the suitor that the evidence is taken in a proper form than in the imperfect form in which it is now taken. So far as the City Civil Court is concerned, it is manned by equally eminent Judges as the Small Cause Court. They are taken from the superior class of practitioners practising in the High Court and there is no fear of an inferior tribunal dealing with the cases. So long as the court is manned from respectable practitioners, I have no fear that the City Civil Court will be in any way considered inferior. Therefore, that fear need not be entertained. There is always the safeguard of an appeal which is heard by two Judges of the High Court, and I think it would lead to more efficiency.

"There is one other matter which I wish to mention and it is this: After all, this Bill attempts to provide for exceptional cases. I am sorry to say that I am not in possession of the figures—the honourable mover did not give them and I wish he had done so—of the class of suits between Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 2,000 which are transferred at the instance of the defendant to the High Court. They must be very rare indeed. But, on the other hand, to give the option to the plaintiff to institute the suit in the City Civil Court rather than in the Small Cause Court should be welcomed. Therefore I wholeheartedly support the measure."

The Hon'ble Mr. B. V. NARASIMHA AYYAR:—"Your Excellency, like the Hon'ble Mr. Ramachandra Rau, I also expected that the first motion would be passed without a debate. It is necessary that the Council should have complete information. With regard to the objections raised to the Bill, I am unable to see how the Bill is in any way injurious. The objections which have been raised to the Bill appear to me to be based on the following grounds. The first ground appears to be that the anomaly that exists, namely, that suits between Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 2,000 may be put straight into the High Court at the option of the party while suits between Rs. 2,000 and Rs. 3,000 cannot be so put, is not a sufficient justification for the Bill. That is the chief reason. I am unable to agree that this anomaly should be ignored. It is proposed as an alternative to amend section 21 of the Small Cause Courts Act. But I am not for any such proposal.

"The objection has been taken by the chief opponent of the measure that the effect of the present Bill would be to take away a highly-valued privilege and to leave it arbitrarily to the High Court Judges to say whether such and such a suit should be tried by the High Court or by the City Civil Court. I think there is very little need for fear of the High Court acting arbitrarily. The High Court is the palladium of justice and its Judges know what suits should be sent to the High Court and what should be sent to the City Civil Court. We may be quite sure that simply because we leave it to the High Court to decide which cases should come before the High Court and which before the City Civil Court, there is no danger to the interests of the parties.

"Again the question of cost has been put forward, the cost to the individual and the cost to the State. Taking the cost to the individual, the Hon'ble Mr. Robinson said that for some suits the court fee might be Rs. 150 in the City Civil Court, but only Rs. 50 in the High Court. But it is not the institution fee in the High Court that matters; the bill of costs becomes tremendous. It is only contested cases that will be taken up to the High Court and not ex parte cases. This privilege of transfer into the High Court is exercised only in cases where it is likely there will be a severe contest which it is necessary for the High Court to judge. Under the present law we have power given to the parties to take up cases to the High Court. In some cases the bill of costs comes to Rs. 600 or Rs. 700. Therefore it is not a safe ground to say that the cost to the party is a consideration which will be against the proposal. It is a proposal distinctly in favour of the parties.

3RD AUGUST 1916.] (Mr. Narasimha Ayyar; the Advocate-General.)

"As regards the cost to the State, the Hon'ble Mr. Ramanuja Achariyar thinks that by not passing this Act we would secure economy. But we should not secure economy by not passing this measure. The value of High Court Judges' time is more than that of the City Civil Judge. If as a result of this measure it is suggested that we should have to increase the number of Judges in the City Civil Court, he might remember that we are also increasing the number of High Court Judges on account of the large number of cases filed in that court. As to the number of appeals, he thinks that these cases which are taken away from the High Court to the City Civil Court will come up on appeal to the High Court. It is only a small number of cases that come up in appeal. After all I do not think any serious need for appointing new Judges would arise from the operation of this Bill. On the whole it is distinctly favourable to the State and to the party. For these reasons I support this measure."

The Hon'ble the ADVOCATE-GENERAL:—"There seems to be some misconception with respect to the right of appeal. There will be really no increase in the appellate jurisdiction of the High Court by reason of the passing of this Bill. The proposal is merely to enable the plaintiff to institute the suit in the City Civil Court instead of in the Small Cause Court. As the Act stands at present, the suitor is entitled to institute in certain classes of cases suits of a small cause nature on the Original Side of the High Court. The Council is dealing with the election which the plaintiff has to file his suit on the Original Side. If he files a suit for Rs. 1,000 on the Original Side, he has a right of appeal from the Original Side under the Letters Patent. Neither is the Hon'ble Mr. Ramachandra Rao right in thinking that a new right of appeal is conferred nor is the Hon'ble Mr. Ramanuja Achariyar right in thinking that the appellate work of the High Court will increase. The position will be the same as it was. The provisions of section 21 for transferring suits are availed of by the suitors only in a small percentage of cases. If that is so, there will be really no increase,—and I submit to the Council there can be no increase—in the appellate jurisdiction of the High Court. The Hon'ble Mr. Ramanuja Achariyar may rest assured that this will remain as it was.

"Some thing has been said as to the increase in the cost of litigation, if suits were allowed to be instituted by suitors in the City Civil Court instead of on the Original Side of the High Court. It is a matter of common knowledge that the costs on the Original Side taken altogether are really very much more than what the costs would be in the City Civil Court. No one who has experience of litigation will dispute that. I could understand the Hon'ble Mr. Robinson's remarks if he belonged to my profession.

"Another point taken by the Hon'ble Mr. Robinson is that less time is taken in the High Court if a case is not contested. If a case is not contested, it will take no more time in the City Civil Court. I do not suppose he means that it will not be contested if it is filed in the High Court, but will be contested if it is filed in the City Civil Court. If it is contested it will take some time in other court.

"As for the other question that the jurisdiction of the City Civil Court has been raised from Rs 2,500 to Rs. 3,000 what we did was to raise the jurisdiction of district munsifs from Rs. 2,500 to Rs. 3,000. But that has nothing to do with the jurisdiction of the City Civil Court.

"There was one other point which was mentioned—the court-fee. As a matter of fact, if a suit is filed in the Small Cause Court, that court has power to levy a court-fee not exceeding two annas per rupee, and if the suit is for Rs. 500 the court-fee will come to about Rs. 62, whereas if it is filed in the City Civil Court the ad valorem fee will be somewhere about Rs. 40. That is an argument very much in favour of the Bill rather than against it.

"As to the other question which the Hon'ble Mr. Robinson has raised, the question of principle that the High Court's jurisdiction should not be ousted to any extent and that it should keep control of all litigation in the Presidency town: that principle was negatived when the City Civil Court was established in 1892. The City Civil Court has jurisdiction over all suits except admiralty suits and certain others which have been excepted, as for instance small causes, its pecuniary limit being Rs. 2,500. The Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, section 19, prohibits a certain class of suits from being instituted in the Presidency Small Cause Court. It anything, the jurisdiction of the City Civil Court is practically unlimited, whereas the jurisdiction of the Small Cause Court is limited quite distinctly to suits of a small cause character. Though I do not wish to enter upon the question I may say that whether we consider the pecuniary limit or the nature of the suit the Small Cause Court may not be inferior, but it is certainly not superior to the City Civil Court. The Hon'ble Mr. Robinson may rest assured that there will be no inferior tribunal substituted for adjudication. It is open to a suitor to keep to the Small Cause Court, if the Small Cause Court is good enough, and it is not necessary to have the privilege of going to the High Court; and there is no reason why the City Civil Court, which is quite as good as the Small Cause Court, should not have jurisdiction. Unless a suitor desires to institute a case in the High Court he is not bound to institute it in that court. The Hon'ble Mr. Robinson is labouring under the misconception that we are depriving suitors of their rights. On the other hand the suitors have got the right to choose the Small Cause Court or the High Court and now we give them the forum of the City Civil Court, which has jurisdiction up to Rs. 2,500, while the Small Cause Court has jurisdiction up to Rs. 2,000. The nature of suits filed in the City Civil Court is more comprehensive than that of those filed in the Small Cause Court

"Again there was a reference to questions of law and construction of documents. If any mistakes are made by the City Civil Court they can be brought up to the High Court on appeal. I presume that errors can be made on the Original Side of the High Court as well as in the City Civil Court I do not suppose it will be a very strong argument against the Bill.

"The Council will see that whether we consider the principle recognised in 1892, or the question of keeping down the cost of litigation between party and counsel or between party and party or between the party and the State, whichever view is taken, the measure is more beneficial and in the interest of litigants much more symmetrical than the anomalous position to which we are reduced under the existing section 21. As the Hon'ble Sir Harold Stuart has pointed out, it is clear that when in 1892 the City Civil Court was instituted, the new jurisdiction was overlooked. What is now proposed to be done is to give effect to the opinion which the Judges of the High Court have expressed that it is desirable to remove the anomaly. It is not to be taken that the Council proposes to abridge the power of the High Court, because the proposal emanates from the High Court Judges themselves. I do not suppose there will be any injury either to the professional class or to the litigant class or the mercantile community if this Bill is passed. I am perfectly certain that the mercantile community should in their own interest welcome this measure rather than oppose it."

The Hon'ble Sir HAROLD STUART:—"The Hon'ble Mr. Narasimha Ayyar and the Hon'ble Mr. Srinivasa Ayyangar have dealt so fully with the arguments brought against the Bill that I have very little left to do. The Hon'ble Mr. Ranga Achariyar asked if I could give statistics as to the amount of business that would be affected by this amendment of the law. I find that in the five years ending 1914 the number of suits brought into the High Court or transferred to it was 112, i.e., about 22 per annum. These suits will now be brought in the City Civil Court or transferred to it by the High Court instead of being brought on the Original Side. The Hon'ble Mr. Robinson said that he did not think that the mere removal of the anomaly was a sufficient argument for this Bill I would point out that although that weighs with us a good deal it is not the only reason Another reason is that, to the extent of the small amount of business I have mentioned, we shall relieve the files of the High Court. I notice one rather curious omission on the part of the members who have opposed this motion. They made no reference to this curious fact that a suit for the recovery of a debt of Rs. 1,800 can under the present law be brought in the High Court, but a suit for the recovery of Rs. 2,200 must be brought in the City Civil Court. I do not think that the removal of the anomaly will cause serious injustice and deprive litigants of any valued privilege if a suit for a smaller sum must be brought in the City Civil Court. I hope the Council will pass this motion."

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Secretary then read the title of the Bill.

3RD AUGUST 1916.] (Sir Harold Stuart; Sir Alexander Cardew; Sir Sivaswami Ayyar; The President.)

The Hon'ble Sir HAROLD STUART:—"I had not intended to propose that this Bill be referred to a Select Committee because the real question at issue was one of the principle of the Bill rather than of the details. But it has excited more interest than I anticipated. I understand there is one small point on which we might perhaps amend its provisions. I therefore move that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee for report.

The Hon'ble Sir ALEXANDER CARDEW seconded the motion.

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Sir HAROLD STUART then moved that the Select Committee should consist of the following Members:—

The Hon'ble Sir P. S. Sivaswami Ayyar,
" Mr. J. O. Robinson,
" Mr. T. Richmond,
" the Advocate-General,
" Mr. Gordon Fraser,
" Mr. T. Ranga Achariyar, and
" Sir Harold Stuart.

The Hon'ble Sir P. S. SIVASWAMI AYYAR seconded the motion.

The motion was put and agreed to."

His Excellency the PRESIDENT:—"I think, gentlemen, that more or less concludes the business before the meeting. I should just like to say a word before we proceed to the main business of the non-official members, namely, the election of their representatives to the Imperial Legislative Council.

This is the second Legislative Council which has met in this Chamber for the conduct of business during my term of office, and it is my pleasant duty to welcome you all to those labours which will engage your attention during the next three years. They will, I feel certain, be entered upon with a single eye to the public advantage.

I can assure you that my colleagues in the Executive Government and I myself look forward with confidence to your co-operation in our work for the common good. There are some few changes in the personnel of the Council. I see here a number of familiar faces, and among them, those of men who may now claim to be veterans in this field. Others are no longer with us, to whose good qualities of heart and head I may be allowed to pay a sincere tribute. We may well record our debt of gratitude for the services which they rendered to this Council. That appreciation of the services of their predecessors in no way detracts from the cordiality and sincerity of the welcome which we extend to those members who have now taken their seats for the first time. The Legislative Council, as constituted under the reforms of 1909, gives increased opportunities to men of position and talent to gain a close acquaintance with the working of the administration and to influence and assist its development. It is fitting that these opportunities should be enjoyed by as wide a circle of representatives as possible, and I am glad to think that the extended field of choice open both to election and nomination permits of this without any lowering of a standard of which this Council has reason to be proud. Ons aruhe non deficit alter, and I am confident that this Council will fail neither in that seriousness and singleness of purpose nor in that desire to strengthen and co-operate with the administration which has marked it in the past. No one will more heartily wish the new members a fruitful and successful term of office than those whom they have succeeded.

We are, it is true, still hampered financially and in many other ways by the continuance of that titanic struggle the vicissitudes of which have so long been the subject of our deepest concern, but as you are all well aware, we have good reason to believe that all is now going increasingly well, that the growing resources of our Allies and ourselves in material and equipment are now adequate to second the unconquerable heroism of our troops and that ere long this Council will be able to resume in full those activities upon the wise and sober conduct of which the political and material progress of this Presidency must largely depend. To-morrow will see the close of the second year of the war and it seems to me only right that I should take this opportunity of testifying in your name and my own to the admirable manner in which the people of this Presidency have faced this long period of stress and difficulty. They have cheerfully complied with those commercial restrictions which a state of war has rendered necessary, and they have met the partial dislocation of trade and finance, and the unavoidable curtailment of public expenditure and progress with a sane and sympathetic appreciation of the causes to which they are due. I would also express my admiration of the manner in which they have responded to the claims upon their humanity and generosity. Many a gallant soldier will retain grateful and kindly thoughts of Madras and its warm-hearted people.

As you are aware, gentlemen, the main purpose of this meeting is to enable Honourable Additional Members to assume their seats and to give the non-official members an opportunity to elect representatives to the Legislative Council of the Governor-General.

I understand that the meeting of the non-official Members was to take place at 12 o'clock originally. But we have already passed that hour. There is no more business upon our agenda; I shall therefore simply announce that this meeting of the Council be now adjourned.

The Council then adjourned sine die.

C. G. TODHUNTER,
Acting Secretary to Government, Legislative Dept.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is now settled by a long course of decisions of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council and the Courts in India that a Hindu widow takes only a restricted estate in the property of her husband and that at her death such property passes to the heirs of her husband except as to such portion as may have been alienated by her for legal necessity. Alienations of her husband's estate or portions thereof for legal necessity, which includes the payment of her husband's debts and other charges on the estate, such as the payment of maintenance to female members of the family, debts incurred by the widow for her own maintenance, debts incurred for the funeral obsequies of her husband and for other primary religious purposes, are valid and bind the actual reversioner succeeding to the estate on the death of the widow. The propriety of these transactions is generally called into question only after the death of the widow several years after they are entered into, when most of the evidence in regard to them had disappeared. This has operated very much both to the detriment of the widow and the purchasers. Even in cases where the widow had to dispose of the whole of her husband's estate or such portion as may be necessary for purposes recognized by law as affording a justification, the widow is not able in most cases to realize the full value of the property. The intending purchaser has at present no guarantee whatever that the transaction will not be called into question after the death of the widow and the widow is therefore driven to dispose of the property at much below its fair price which it would have fetched had the disposition been by a full owner. On the other hand, the purchaser is still liable to be sued by the reversioner after the death of the widow and the burden of making out the validity of the transaction is thrown on him many years after it takes place. Under the provisions of the Settled Estates Act, 1877 (40 & 41 Vic., ch. 18) and the Settled Land Act, 1882 (45 & 46 Vic., ch. 38), tenants for life and other limited owners are enabled to dispose of their properties under supervision of the Court after an enquiry in the presence of all parties interested in the reversion. These legislative safeguards existing under the English law afford the necessary protection to purchasers from limited owners, who are also thereby enabled to realize the full value of the properties sold. There are no legal facilities of the kind in this country in regard to limited owners, though there are analogous provisions in the Indian Acts in regard to transfers of property by trustees and mortgagees, executors and administrators and guardians of minors. The existing state of things has made the position of the widow, burdened with the debts of her husband and anxious to save at least a portion of her husband's estate, very irksome. A large class of land suits in the Presidency are by reversioners against limited owners and their vendees or against vendees after the death of the limited owner, calling in question the validity of the transactions entered into between them. Without interfering in any way with the existing law it is proposed in the present Bill to authorize limited owners to apply to the Court for permission for the sale of the property inherited by them after a full enquiry in the presence of the presumptive reversioners and for the application of the sale-proceeds for the liquidation of all debts and charges binding on the estate. It is open to the widow to take proceedings under the Act but when once that is done, finality is given to the transaction under clause 12 and it cannot be questioned by the reversioner who may be alive at the death of the widow or by any other person. The procedure provided in the Bill will, it is believed, greatly reduce litigation by Hindu reversionary heirs, promote the speedy realization of all legitimate charges from the estates of deceased Hindus, facilitate the holding of an enquiry into all the grounds of alleged necessity as early as possible after the death of the full owner, secure better prices for the properties inherited by limited owners wherever it is necessary to sell them, and afford ample protection to purchasers from future harassing litigation and enable them to improve substantially the properties so purchased without the fear of being deprived of them by reversioners.

2. It is often beneficial and even necessary in many cases for the limited owner to exchange a portion of the deceased male owner's property for other property. If the party entering into the transaction were a full owner, he could effect the exchange without any difficulty, but there is a legal impediment in the way of the widow or other limited owner doing the same. The Hindu Law does not authorize a transfer by way of exchange by a limited owner and it has been held that she cannot make an alienation of the estate in order to improve it or even to develop the estate (10 Bombay Law Reporter, 927). For better enjoyment and amenity, it is often necessary to enter into these transactions and a limited owner should not be placed at a disadvantage in this respect. Accordingly it is proposed in the Bill that, with the sanction of the Court and after a full enquiry, limited owners may be permitted to enter into these transactions, the new property being burdened with the same incidents and restrictions.

3. The law in regard to mortgages by limited owners is also equally unsatisfactory. In executing mortgages it has been the usual practice of the country to mention merely the particular legal necessity which has compelled the widow to borrow funds without expressly specifying whether her own life-interest or the entire estate is hypothecated. It is open to the widow to pledge her own limited interest even for debts binding on the estate or to make it clear that she intends to bind the entire estate of the last male owner for the amount secured by the mortgage. This question is most often raised only after a sale is held in execution proceedings. To find out what interest has actually passed to the purchaser it has been held that the pleadings, the document sued on, the decree and all subsequent execution proceedings will have to be scrutinized by the Court with a view to ascertain the intention of the parties. (I L.R., 24 Mad., 183; I.L.R., 37 Mad., 22.) There is therefore a great deal of uncertainty in finding out the interest disposed of at court-sales where limited owners such as a widow and a daughter are judgment-debtors.

It is proposed in the present Bill to empower, with the permission of the Court, the limited owner to execute a mortgage or a lease for any purpose binding on the estate and that, in that event, the mortgage or lease will have the same effect as if it were executed by the last full owner. The limited owner, the mortgagee and the lessee will, it is expected, be placed in a better position by this provision and intending purchasers will be relieved of the difficulties and pitfalls now existing in regard to execution sales.

4. A few explanatory remarks on the clauses of the Bill are added hereunder:—

Clause 1.—By section 4 of the Madras Impartible Estates Act the position of the proprietor is defined as analogous to that of the managing member of a joint Hindu family and the classes of alienations permissible to the proprietors of the estates governed by that Act are expressly mentioned. It is therefore explicitly stated in the explanation that the Bill does not apply to the estates governed by that Act.

Clause 2.—"A limited Owner" as defined in the Bill includes a female heir succeeding to stridhana property. It has now been settled that a female heir succeeding to stridhana property only takes a qualified estate (I.L.R., 25 All., 468 and 476)

"The presumptive reversioner".—In cases where the immediate presumptive reversioner is a female, both the immediate female heir and the full owner who takes the estate after her are included in the definition.

"The Court".—It is possible that doubts may arise as to whether civil courts in the Agency tracts will be within the definition; the explanation makes this matter clear. The existing law in regard to the jurisdiction of the courts in suits for possession of immovable property will, according to the definition, apply to the applications to the Court for sanction to transfer the estate or part of it. The application can therefore be made in the Court of the lowest grade exercising original civil jurisdiction.

Clause 3.—Apart from transfers with the consent of the presumptive reversioner, this clause enables the Court on the application of the limited owner to sanction transfers after due enquiry.

Clauses 4 to 6.—These clauses lay down the procedure of the Court in dealing with the application for permission to a limited owner to transfer the estate. They are intended to secure a full and fair disclosure of the condition of affairs and to secure a fair hearing for all parties interested in the matter. These provisions are analogous to those contained in the Guardian and Wards Act dealing with the applications by guardians for obtaining the sanction of the Court for the disposal of the properties of their wards and to the procedure provided under the Settled Estates Act, 1877, and Settled Land Act, 1882, in applications for sale under the orders of the Court of properties in the enjoyment of limited owners.

Clause 7.—It is desirable that the Court should have a wide latitude in dealing with the matters under consideration. It is therefore proposed to give ample power to the Court in dealing with applications by limited owners for sanctioning transfers. A Hindu widow not being a trustee, it is not proposed to fetter her liberty of action in dealing with the property, or with the application of the funds realized by the transfer. At the same time there may be cases where the widow and the intended transferee may desire to have the amount disbursed through Court, or where the Court itself may come to the conclusion that it is desirable that the transaction should be completed under its control. This clause makes provision for these cases, while at the same time not unduly interfering with the limited owner's powers in regard to properties in her enjoyment.

Clause 8.—This is a useful provision which will enable the Court to deal more effectually with the transfer of properties subject to mortgages or other encumbrances. It is similar to the provision in the Code of Civil Procedure dealing with suits relating to mortgage of immovable property.

Clauses 11 to 13.—These clauses define the nature of the interest transferred when a transfer takes place with the sanction of the Court and are required for the protection of purchasers and to secure finality to transactions entered into by limited owners with the approval of the Court.
